Dear Organizing Committee,

As the (1) _____ (2) _____ of Banpool Football Club, I am writing in (3) _____ with an (4) _____ that occurred in (5) _____'s (6) _____ between our (7) _____ and Firestone Football Club.

During the (8) _____, a (9) _____ named Karl Bellinger participated, and it has come to our (10) _____ that Bellinger is also the (11) _____ of Ironfield Football Club, a (12) _____ that has already been eliminated from this (13) _____.

Firestone Football Club has clearly violated (14) _____ (15) _____ by using a (16) _____ registered with another (17) _____.

We urge the (18) _____ to investigate this (19) _____.

I am concerned that such (20) _____ may undermine the (21) _____ of the (22) _____.

I look forward to your (23) _____ regarding this (24) _____.

Giving (1) _____ an edible (2) _____ that you know they love after a tricky (3) _____ to cheer them up or soothe them can be tempting but I advise you not to.

When we try to comfort a (4) _____ with (5) _____ rather than attend to their physical and emotional (6) _____, we leave them feeling not understood.

Instead of learning that they'll receive appropriate (7) _____ and (8) _____, they receive the (9) _____ that their (10) _____ ca n't or wo n't be met appropriately.

Consequently, they understand one of the (11) _____ : that their (12) _____ are not valid ; that they are too much for their (13) _____ ; that they are being silly ; that next (14) _____ they should keep quiet ; or that they need to shout louder to be heard.

A (10) _____ could do the same across a hundred (11) _____, but that seems unlikely given how primitive its (12) _____ is.

Instead, each (13) _____ might simply tell the (14) _____ whether it has detected something moving or not.

Think of the (15) _____'s (16) _____ as a (17) _____ (18) _____ watching a (19) _____ of a hundred (20) _____, each connected to a (21) _____ - sensing (22) _____.

The (23) _____ may be (24) _____ - of - the - (25) _____, but the (26) _____ they capture are not sent to the (27) _____.
